

AGREEMENT ABOUT MACEDONIA REACHED

British and Austrian Rulers Decide on Measures Turkey Must Take.

MONARCHS MEET AT ISCHL

Both Germany and France Pleased with the Meeting Between King Edward and the Kaiser.

Special Cablegram.

Copyright, 1907, by THE NEW YORK TIMES Co.

ISCHL, Austria, Aug. 15.—After the meeting of King Edward and Emperor Francis Joseph to-day Sir Charles Hardinge, Permanent Under Secretary of the British Foreign Office, and Baron von Aehrenthal, the Austrian Foreign Minister, had a conversation at which, I am enabled to say, the Macedonian question was discussed and perfect concord was attained between the two Governments as regards the measures to be forced upon Turkey in connection with reform in Macedonia and the measures to be taken against the Macedonian bands.

The agreement between England and Austria is the more propitious as all the other powers will fall into line with it. A communication to this effect will be issued by the Foreign Office at Vienna.

A laughable story is current here relative to the King. For weeks great preparations for the royal visit had been making at the Hotel Elizabeth, and a stock of everything it was conceived possible that King Edward might want was laid in. Almost immediately after his arrival the King asked for soda water, presumably with whisky in it. The whisky was forthcoming, but there was not a bottle of soda water in the establishment.

The New York Times

Published: August 16, 1907

Copyright © The New York Times